A Leather Horse Racing Journal

User Manual

Understand the card. Follow the meeting. Remember the day.

WELCOME

Made to feel like a journal

This guide explains only the features evidenced in the supplied app screens and instructions. Screen appearance may vary slightly by device or app version.

Privacy-safe illustrations. No personal photographs, diary writing, names, contact details, addresses, email addresses, telephone numbers, to-do items, private memories or inscriptions are reproduced in this manual. Chapter-specific neutral diagrams retain the useful navigation and control sequence without exposing user data.

Quick start

1. Open the journal's front cover.
2. Choose the meeting you want to follow.
3. Use the main menu to reach the course, races, runners and guidance pages.
4. Review weather and racecard detail for the day.
5. Use Remember to keep a reflection, then leave through the finished/back cover.

Help & troubleshooting

CHAPTER 01

Front and back covers

The leather front cover opens the journal; the finished and back covers complete the visit.

How to use it

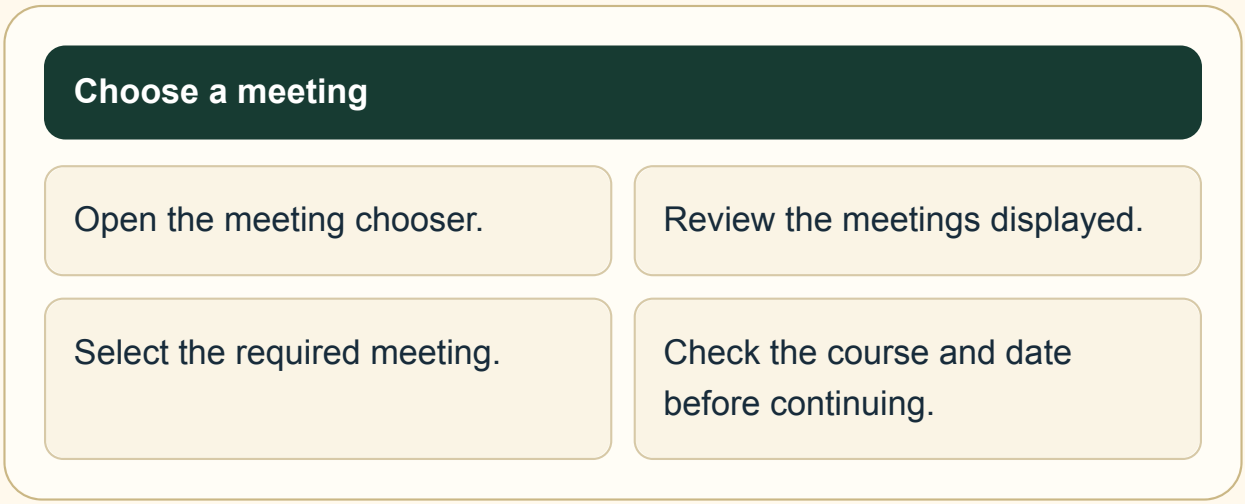

1. Open the front cover to enter.
2. Use the journal pages and menu.
3. Move to the finished/back-cover view when done.

> Note
> This manual shows no personal inscription.

CHAPTER 02

Choose a meeting

The meeting chooser sets the race meeting you want to explore.

How to use it

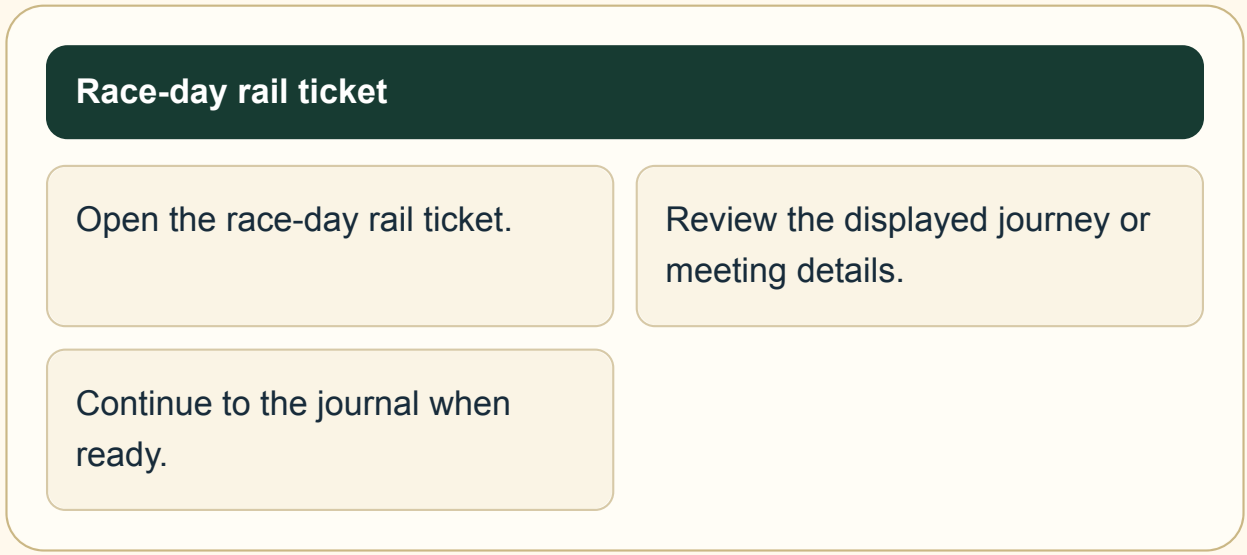

1. Open the meeting chooser.
2. Review the meetings displayed.
3. Select the required meeting.
4. Check the course and date before continuing.

> Note
> If the wrong card appears, return to the chooser and confirm the meeting again.

CHAPTER 03

Race-day rail ticket

The rail-ticket page is a themed way into the race-day journey evidenced by the journal.

How to use it

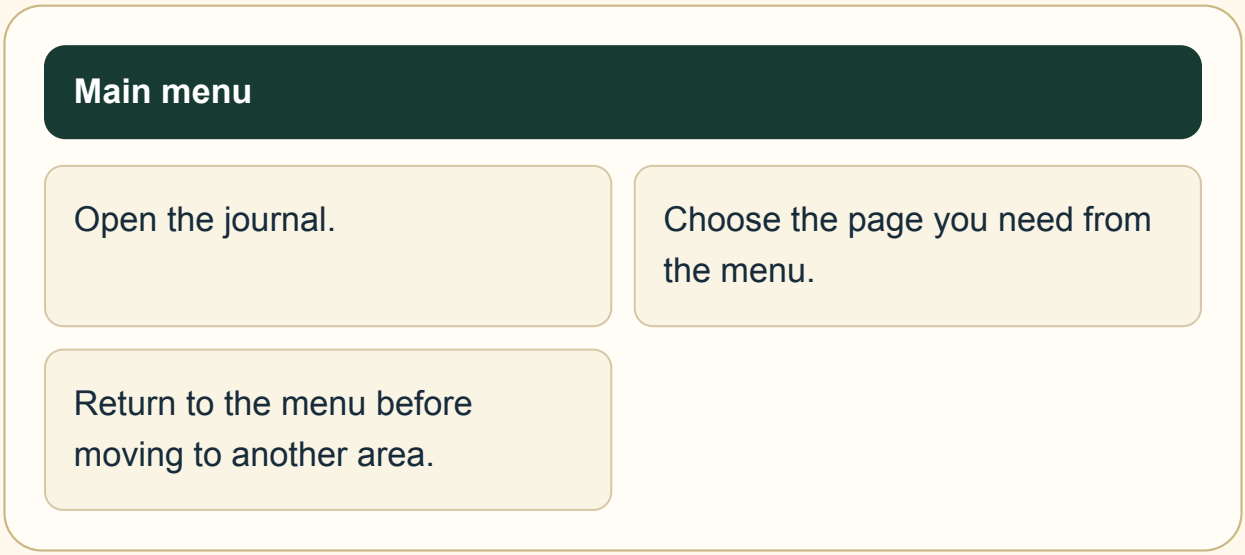

1. Open the race-day rail ticket.
2. Review the displayed journey or meeting details.
3. Continue to the journal when ready.

> Note
> Treat real travel details as private when sharing an image of this page.

CHAPTER 04

Main menu

The main menu is the hub for the course, races, runners, racecard guidance and memories.

How to use it

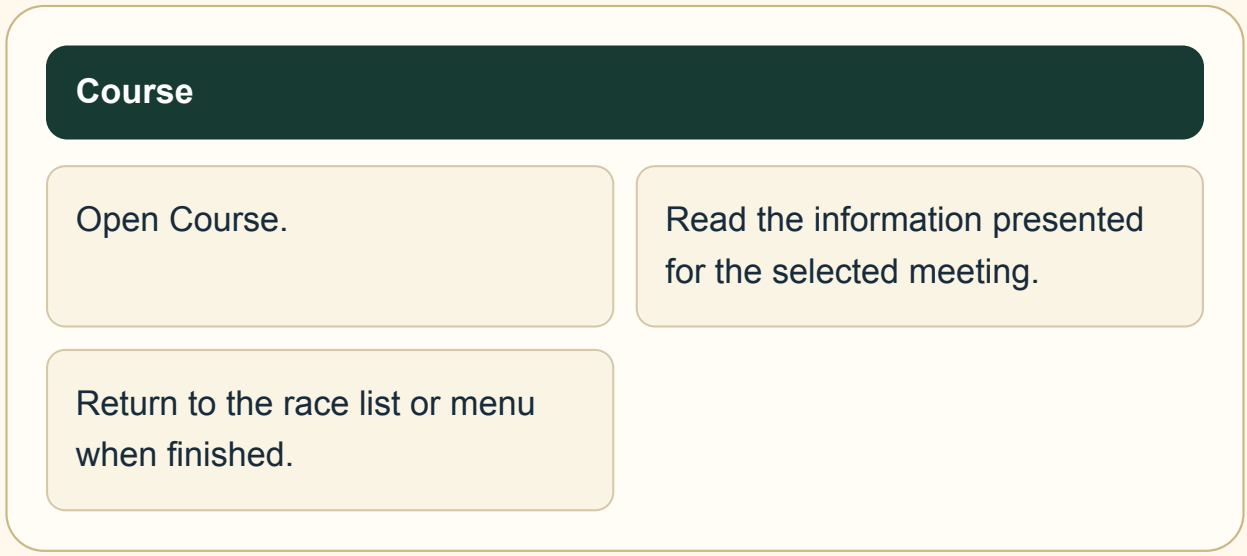

1. Open the journal.
2. Choose the page you need from the menu.
3. Return to the menu before moving to another area.

> Note
> The exact destinations are those displayed in your version of the journal.

CHAPTER 05

Course

The Course page provides the meeting-place context shown in the app.

How to use it

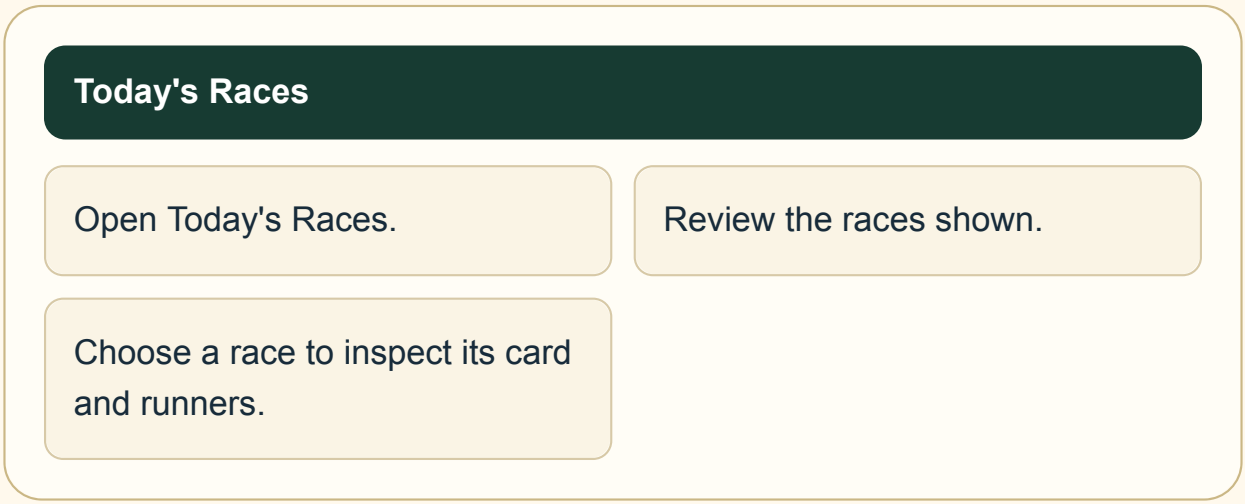

1. Open Course.
2. Read the information presented for the selected meeting.
3. Return to the race list or menu when finished.

> Note
> Confirm the selected meeting first if the course information is not what you expected.

CHAPTER 06

Today's Races

Today's Races lists the races for the selected meeting day.

How to use it

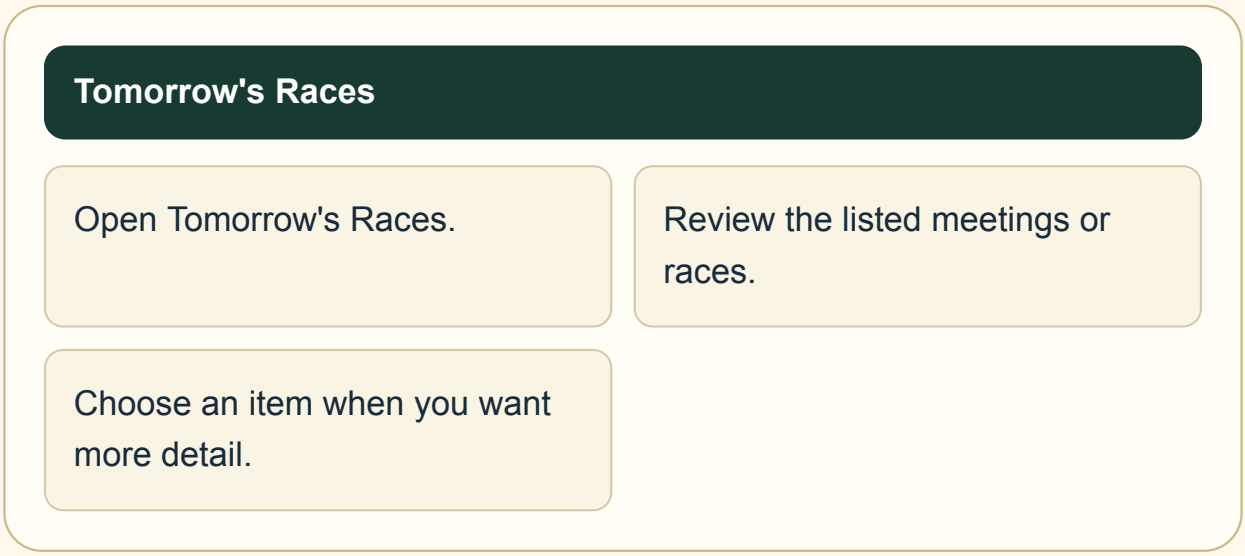

1. Open Today's Races.
2. Review the races shown.
3. Choose a race to inspect its card and runners.

> Note
> Race details can change; use the information shown in the journal as a guide and check current official information when necessary.

CHAPTER 07

Tomorrow's Races

Tomorrow's Races lets you look ahead to the next day's available card.

How to use it

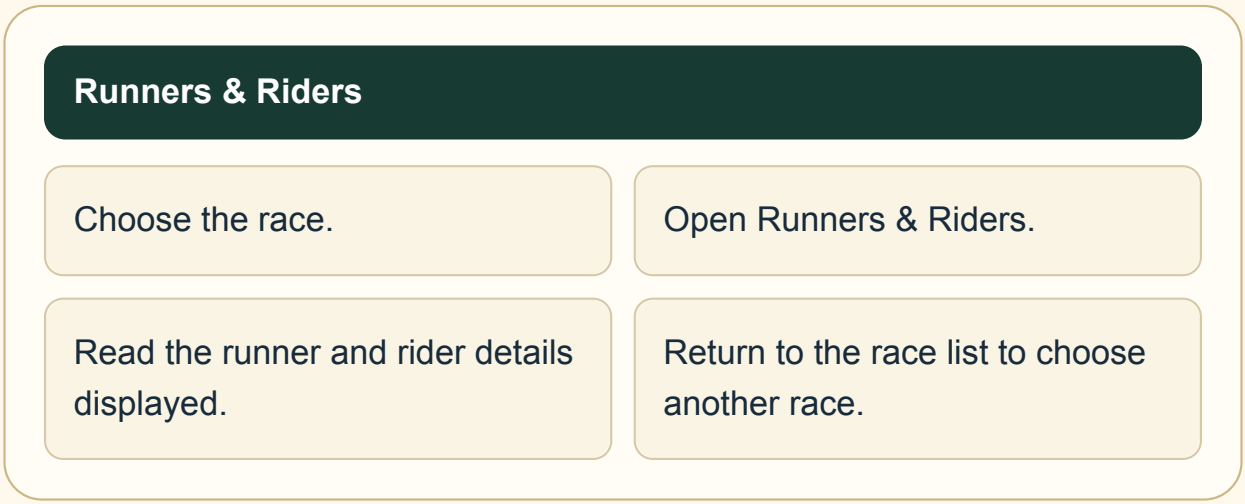

1. Open Tomorrow's Races.
2. Review the listed meetings or races.
3. Choose an item when you want more detail.

> Note
> A tomorrow card may not yet contain every final detail.

CHAPTER 08

Runners & Riders

Runners & Riders presents the field for a selected race.

How to use it

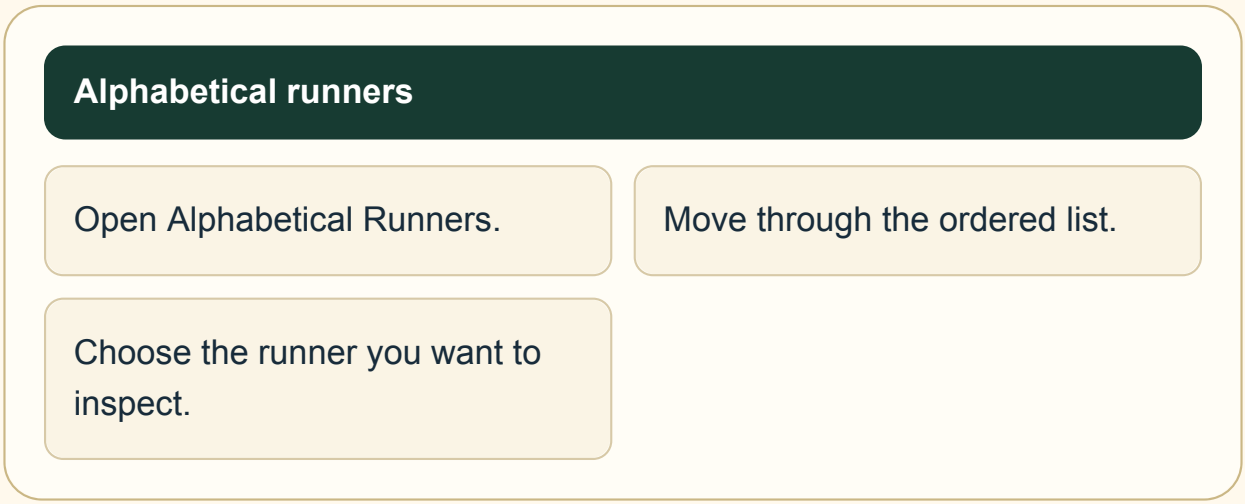

1. Choose the race.
2. Open Runners & Riders.
3. Read the runner and rider details displayed.
4. Return to the race list to choose another race.

> Note
> Always check that the race heading matches the race you intended to inspect.

CHAPTER 09

Alphabetical runners

The alphabetical view provides another way to locate a runner.

How to use it

1. Open Alphabetical Runners.
2. Move through the ordered list.
3. Choose the runner you want to inspect.

> Note
> Use the racecard view when you need the runner in race context.

CHAPTER 10

What to Look For / Understand the card

These guidance pages explain how to read the racecard information presented by the journal.

What to Look For / Understand the card

- Open What to Look For or Understand the Card.
- Read the labels and explanations.
- Return to the racecard and apply the guidance to the displayed details.

How to use it

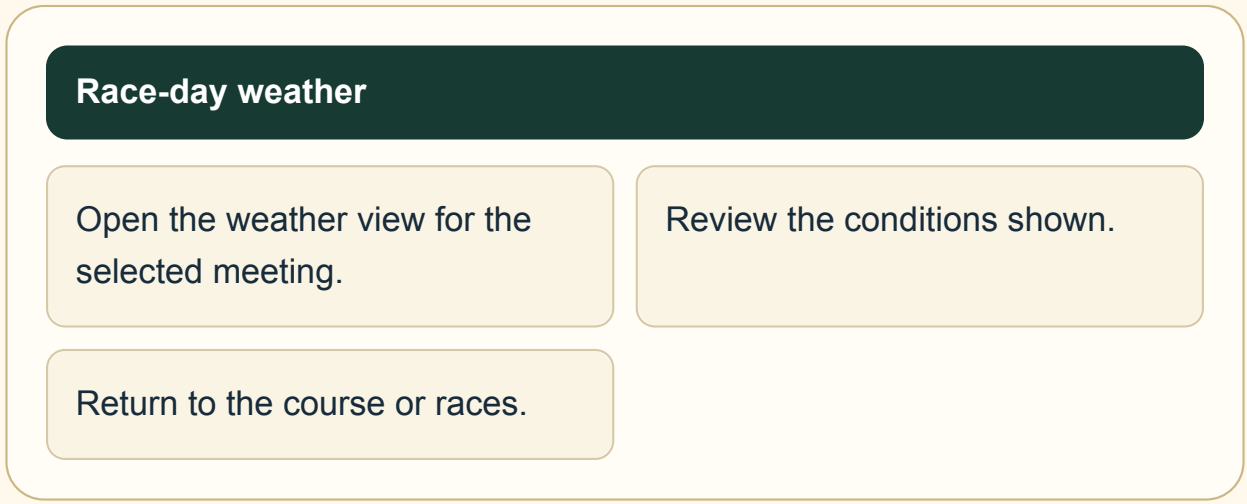

1. Open What to Look For or Understand the Card.
2. Read the labels and explanations.
3. Return to the racecard and apply the guidance to the displayed details.

> Note
> The guidance supports understanding; it is not a promise of an outcome or betting advice.

CHAPTER 11

Race-day weather

Weather adds conditions for the meeting day.

How to use it

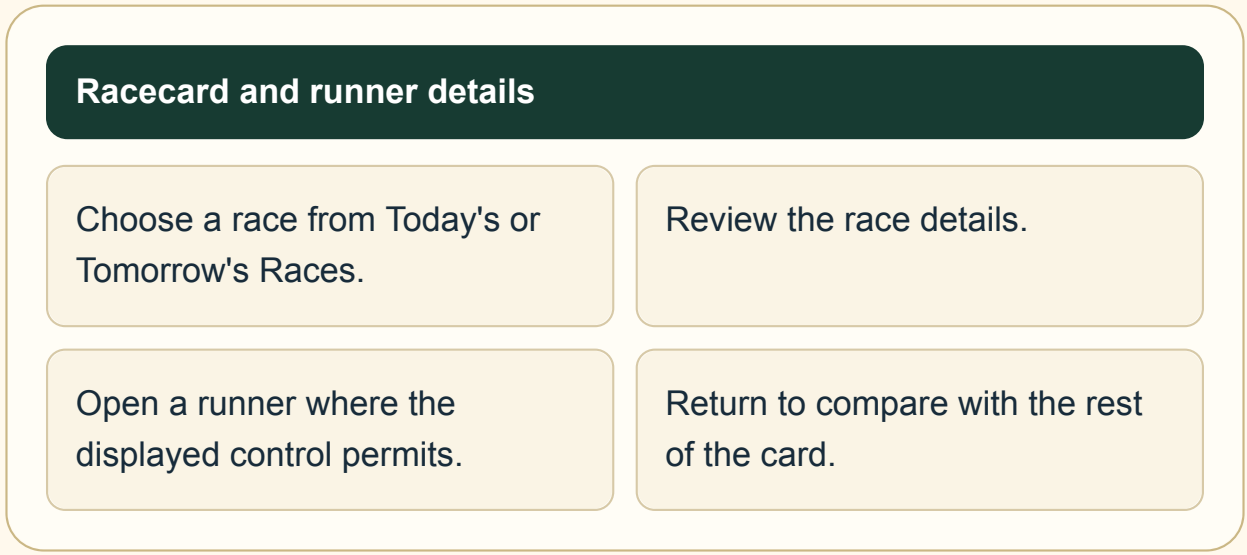

1. Open the weather view for the selected meeting.
2. Review the conditions shown.
3. Return to the course or races.

> Note
> Conditions can change through the day; refresh or re-open the view when appropriate.

CHAPTER 12

Racecard and runner details

The racecard detail view brings together the race heading and the runner information shown by the app.

How to use it

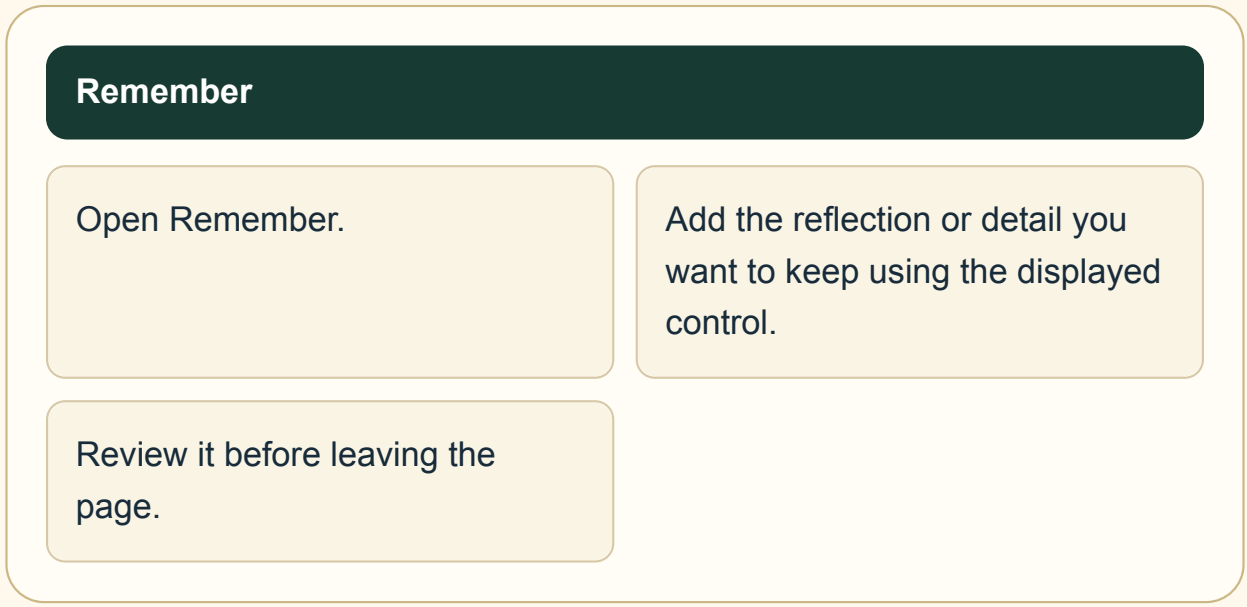

1. Choose a race from Today's or Tomorrow's Races.
2. Review the race details.
3. Open a runner where the displayed control permits.
4. Return to compare with the rest of the card.

> Note
> Read headings carefully so information from different races is not confused.

CHAPTER 13

Remember

Remember is the journal's page for preserving the experience of the day.

How to use it

1. Open Remember.
2. Add the reflection or detail you want to keep using the displayed control.
3. Review it before leaving the page.

> Note
> Keep shared screenshots free of private text or personal photographs.

HELP

Help & troubleshooting

I cannot find a page

Return to the main menu or opening view and choose the destination again. Check that you are working in the intended edition and, where relevant, the intended date, course, meeting or race.

Information looks old or incomplete

Reopen the view and use a refresh option only where one is displayed. For weather, course and race information, remember that external facts may change.

An entry is missing

Return to the relevant page and check its date or selection. Where the app displays a save control, confirm the item was saved before leaving.

I am about to share or export

Review every page first. Remove or omit personal writing, photographs, contact details, travel details and inscriptions unless you intentionally want to share them.

The layout differs from this guide

This manual uses simplified diagrams to protect private information. Follow the labels displayed by your copy of the app and use its built-in Help page where available.
